2. Reasons for Amendment

In terms of consolidated earnings forecasts, net sales, operating income, recurring income, and profit for the year attributable to owners of the parent are expected to exceed the previous announcement, mainly due to growth in sales units numbers in Overseas Housing and Real Estate Business reflecting the strong housing market in the U.S. and improved orders received and progress in construction in Housing and Construction Business compared with the initial forecast.

The dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 remains unchanged from the previous announcement on May 29, 2020.

Note: The company changed its fiscal term end from March 31 to December 31 from the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 and unified the fiscal year end of our group on December 31. The current fiscal year, which is the transition period, is the nine months starting on April 1, 2020 and ending on December 31, 2020, assuming the change of fiscal year end. Therefore, the forecast of the consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 above shows the forecast figures for nine months. For reference, results for the first 9 months of the previous fiscal year (from April 1, 2019 to December 31, 2019) are also presented.
